

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

BONNE TERRE

Mrs. Demsey, of Flat River, visited here Sunday with friends.

Ed Cunningham, of Melzo, spent Saturday here with friends.

Louis Goodman spent Saturday and Sunday in Desloge with home folks.

Renew during the drive—your St. Francois County Farm Bureau membership.

Roy Moore, of Valle Mines, spent Sunday here with friends.

Andrew McCoy, of Desloge, spent Wednesday and Friday here.

Ernest Mason spent Sunday in Leadwood with home folks.

Oliver Pratte is on the sick list at this writing.

Norman Chandler, who has been very ill for some time at the Bonne Terre hospital, died Saturday morning. He leaves a wife, several brothers and other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The funeral was conducted Monday at the Methodist church by Rev. Eiders and interment in the Bonne Terre cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bouchard, Mrs. Luther Poston and Mrs. Theodore Tenholder were visitors in Desloge Saturday.

Mrs. Belle Freeman and Mrs. Roy Wilburn were called to St. Louis Thursday on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Leona Dodson, formerly Miss Edith Freeman.

Rev. Sevek was a business visitor in St. Louis Thursday.

Miss Louise Brennan spent the week in St. Louis with her sister, Mrs. J. Doctor, and family.

Mrs. Geo. Murrill spent Sunday in Bismarck with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Mester.

Mrs. James Stewart entertained a number of her little friends in honor of the birthday of her daughters, Ruth and Georgia. A large crowd was present and games were played. Delightful refreshments were served and all had a most pleasant time.

Miss Gladys Stoupe, who is teaching school in Festus, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Stoupe, and family.

Miss Lucille Simpson spent the week-end in Farmington with home folks.

Wesley Holdman and Miss Tempe Hickman were married Monday. The bride is well known here and is a popular young lady. The groom is also well and favorably known here. They will make their home here. The best wishes of the community are extended to them for a long and happy married life.

Myrtle Vandiver, of Rivermines, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents.

Heber Reynolds, of DeSoto, spent Friday and Saturday here with friends.

GIVEN AWAY: All kinds of help by the St. Francois County Farm Bureau. Join now.

Mr. Fisher and Mr. Rhodia, of Flat River, spent Monday and Tuesday here on business.

E. Williams and wife, of Leadwood, were visitors with friends here Sunday.

Rev. Julian Medlovskidzi, former pastor of Leadwood, spent Tuesday here with friends.

Wm. Fowler, of French Village, was a business visitor here this week.

Rev. J. S. Moser spent Thursday in Arcadia with friends.

Miss Mabel Hudson spent Saturday and Sunday in Desloge with home folks.

Geo. Wheelahan and son, Bernard, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives and to attend the funeral of his aunt.

Miss Katherine Wheelahan, an old and highly esteemed citizen of this city, died at her home after a short illness, at the age of 83 years. She leaves one brother, Garrett Wheelahan of Silver Springs, and two sisters, Miss Anna Wheelahan of near Farmington and Mrs. Eliza Kline of this city, besides many other relatives and friends. Funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon at the Catholic church by Rev. Sevek and interment in the family cemetery at the Wheelahan farm.

John and Albert Forshee, of Coonville, were business visitors here this week.

Fenton Millen spent Friday here on business.

Mrs. Austin Pratte and daughter, Miss Bridget, and Albert Williams spent Monday at Silver Springs with Mr. and Mrs. G. Wheelahan and E. Murphy and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunn and Miss Anna Wheelahan, of Farmington, were called here Sunday to attend the funeral of Miss Katherine Wheelahan.

Mr. Pittman, an old and reliable citizen of this place, died here last week. Funeral was at the Methodist church and interment in the Bonne Terre cemetery.

Misses Reva and Effie Counts, of French Village, spent Friday and Saturday here on business and with relatives.

Thos. O'Sullivan spent Monday in French Village on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jackson, of French Village, spent Wednesday here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kleppspattel spent Sunday in Desloge with the latter's home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nelms, of Elvins, spent Saturday and Sunday here with the families of M. E. Cooksey and Geo. Nelms.

Andrew Ponder, of Fredericktown, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his parents.

Miss Laura Thurman spent the week-end in Silver Springs with her parents.

Mrs. Calcia King and Mrs. Ed Higgins, of Flat River, spent Sunday here and attended the funeral of Miss Kate Wheelahan.

Albert Jones, of Melzo, spent Friday here with friends.

Wm. Wilkinson spent Wednesday here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, of Desloge, spent Saturday and Sunday with the former's parents, George West, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buhrmaster, of Flat River, spent Saturday and Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Jesse Livingston.

Willie House spent Saturday in Silver Springs with his uncle, E. Murphy.

Every loyal farmer supports the Farm Bureau.

Eli Thomure spent Sunday in Ste. Genevieve with relatives and friends.

Misses Hilda and Lillian McClanahan have returned to St. Louis, after a few days visit with their parents.

Miss Mabel Mouser is very ill at this writing.

Cyprian Boyer and daughter, Miss Sidney, were called to Ste. Genevieve Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Boyer's sister.

Mrs. Stevens, of Flat River, spent Sunday here with friends.

Edison Rinewalt, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with his family.

H. Tucker and son, of Flat River, spent Wednesday here with friends.

Edna and Garrett Poston, of Elvins, spent Saturday and Sunday here with their aunt.

Fred Brennan spent Friday at Big River at the home of John Murphy.

Mr. Lang was a business visitor here Monday.

Smith Aubuchon is very ill at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Benham and little daughter, of Flat River, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Marvin Benham, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Murphy, of Silver Springs, spent Saturday here with relatives.

Harry Semands spent Friday and Saturday in Farmington on business.

Mrs. Luther Rice and son, John Hudson, spent Friday and Saturday in Farmington, attending the fair.

Walter Cook, of Desloge, spent Thursday here with his father, Thos. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doyle have returned from Canada, where they attended the funeral of the latter's father, George Hearse.

Miss Nellie Hoskings, of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, Frank Hoskings and wife.

Mrs. Henry Thurman, of Silver Springs, spent Thursday here on business and visiting friends.

Mrs. Fenton Millen and little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Silver Springs, spent Wednesday here.

Chas. Ward, of St. Louis, spent a few days here this week with his parents.

The Farm Bureau is here to help you; use it.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick have moved into the Keith residence.

Roy Cronbaugh spent the past week in St. Louis attending a meeting of optometrists.

J. Malugen was a visitor in Farmington Tuesday.

William Benham, an aged citizen of near Hazel Run, died at his home recently of cancer. He leaves a number of relatives and friends to mourn his departure. Funeral services were held at Marvin Chapel and interment was in the Marvin Chapel cemetery.

Miss Overall, teacher in the schools here, spent Sunday in Farmington with home folks.

Henry Radle, of Farmington, was a business visitor here this week.

Jos. Ivanceky and son and daughter, spent Thursday in Farmington with relatives.

BISMARCK

Long live the Farm Bureau.

Henry Denton and Miss Frances Smith, two popular young people of near here, surprised their many friends Monday, when they went to Flat River and were united in marriage by Rev. Wm. Stewart. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served on Tuesday to a number of near relatives. We join their many friends in wishing them a happy journey over the sea of life.

The Bismarck boys' basketball team went to Doe Run Friday afternoon, where they played the team of that place and were decisively beaten by the "wee" Doe Runners. The score was 34 to 20. A number of people are at a loss to know what ails the home team that they never win, as the second, or "scrub" team beats them every day, and by large scores at that. The question can be answered in a very few words as to what is the matter with the home team—they need four more good players; they have one, a captain, a coach and some enthusiasm. We are for Bismarck's school team 100 per cent, but would like to see them improve their playing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Baker and son, Kenneth, and daughter, Ina Lee, were visiting relatives and friends near Caledonia Sunday.

Miss Georgia Matkin went to Batesville, Ark., Sunday for a few weeks visit with her friend, Mrs. L. C. Crutchfield.

Mrs. Winder, of Middlebrook, visited her husband here Sunday. He has charge of an extra gang here, doing section work.

Little Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Schieling, is recovering very nicely from an attack of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Seaborn and two daughters, of Belgrade, were here Sunday to see Mrs. Fred Wood, who is critically ill with pneumonia.

WANTED: All progressive farmers to be members of the Farm Bureau.

Rev. Longear, of this city, on Thursday morning received the sad news that his father and mother had been severely burned early that morning. Rev. Longear hurried there as quickly as possible. His mother passed away shortly after his arrival, and his father is in serious condition. We join with his many friends in extending our sincere sympathy in his hour of sorrow.

A. H. Hinz and son, William, attended the fair in Farmington Saturday.

Rev. J. W. Ham was a Leadwood visitor Friday.

Henry Stapp and Miss Grace Wood, of Leadwood, were visitors here on Saturday.

Rev. Wm. England, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. England, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bass and daughters, Lela and Albert, Misses Louise Woodrow and Lillian Gale were in Pilot Knob and vicinity Saturday.

Rev. Wm. England, on Sunday, delivered his farewell sermons as pastor of the local Baptist church. He began his duties as missionary of the Franklin Association Monday.

Dr. F. W. Gale and A. H. Hinz have installed a modern Delco Lighting plant.

Miss Lillian Schmidt, teacher of the Hickory Grove school, spent the week-end with her parents at Flat River.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. White, of Fredericktown, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Gale.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Black and daughter, Mary Ruth, of Crystal City, came here Saturday night, in order that Mrs. Black might be nearer her physician.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Cole and Mr. and Mrs. A. Cole, of Belgrade, were shopping here Thursday.

C. Stoner, of Caledonia, were visitors here Saturday.

Miss Virginia Castleman spent the week-end with her parents at Farmington.

Obie Inman, of Walnut Grove, was a Sunday visitor here.

Virgil Sloan and Vernon Hanchbrough were Leadwood visitors Sunday.

Every farmer must help by joining the Farm Bureau if it is to stay in this county.

C. B. Denman, of Farmington, was here a few minutes between trains Sunday greeting friends.

J. C. Kness, of St. Louis, was a visitor with his family here Sunday.

P. C. Friend, R. J. Eldson and E. M. Kempe, our star tennis players, were in Poplar Bluff Sunday, where they took on the strong Poplar Bluff team and scalped them in grand fashion, winning five out of eight sets.

Vernon Gale was an Ironton visitor Saturday.

Miss Hyacinth Davidson was a St. Louis visitor the past week.

Wm. Gudger, of Fredericktown, was a visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. Stacy, of St. Louis, was guest at the A. W. Hall home the past week.

Mrs. Kate Walters and Miss Land, of St. Louis, were guests of Mrs. E. McGinnis the past week.

Stanley Bisplinghoff, of St. Louis, visited his parents here the past week.

Miss Minerva Rainwater is back in school after a three weeks' absence, due to sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Denton and family were in Farmington the week-end to attend the county fair.

Al McGra, of Fredericktown, was a business visitor here the past week.

Rev. J. F. Forsythe, of Caledonia, was a visitor here on Friday.

Dr. Thomas, a returned missionary from Brazil, delivered a very interesting lecture at the high school Friday morning and at the Presbyterian church that night.

The boys' basketball team went to Ironton Saturday afternoon and won their first game in two years. The score was 32 to 12. To home boys, took an early lead which the Iron county boys were unable to overtake.

Wm. Sykes, of Iron Mountain, was here Thursday.

Miss Daisy Adams and brother, John, of Ironton, were here Sunday afternoon to meet a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Biddle are home after a visit of a month with relatives and friends in the western states.

Join in with the organization which stands for better farms and better living conditions—the Farm Bureau.

Mesdames Hugh Steel and F. W. Gale were in Leadwood Friday evening to witness the Bismarck-Leadwood girls' basketball game.

Theo. Thompson, Lyle Baker, Dent Matkin and Misses Lulu Hanchbrough, Georgia Matkin and Mae Keathley saw the basketball game at Leadwood Friday afternoon.

Ed McClary entertained a number of young folks Friday night with an opossum hunt on the Buford Mountain. They motored to the mountain then hiked over it to Iron Mountain lake. One opossum and one coon, in addition to bushels of fun, were the fruits of the chase. Those in the party report a very enjoyable time.

A large number of local members of the Epworth League attended a meeting of that order in Farmington Friday night.

Wallace Gibson, of Ironton, visited friends and relatives here Friday.

Jesse Smith, of Ironton, was a visitor here on Friday evening.

L. N. Beard was a Flat River visitor Friday.

Mrs. Geo. Perry and children, of Bonne Terre, visited her mother, Mrs. L. N. Beard, the week-end.

Misses Carrie and Rita Tullock were Farmington visitors the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Tally were in Farmington Saturday to attend the fair.

Harry Berthold, an enterprising farmer of near here, won second prize on wheat at the fair in Farmington last week.

G. J. Goeltz and son, Norman, attended the fair in Farmington Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Denton attended the fair at Farmington last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. DeGuire and little daughter, Mary Jane, of Fredericktown, spent from Saturday evening to Sunday evening here.

The girls' basketball team went to Leadwood Friday afternoon, where they were defeated by the score of 18 to 11. The home girls got off to a bad start, and their forwards were unable to throw goals when scores were needed.

The Elvins girls' team will be the attraction on the local court this evening. They defeated our girls once this season, but the home girls say they can't do it again. Come out and root for the home team.

LEADWOOD

Rev. J. W. Ham, of Bismarck, was here a short while Saturday morning on business.

T. M. Jackson, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, of Desloge, was here last Thursday on business.

H. L. Stapp, Miss Mildred Keith and Miss Grace Wood were attending the fair at Farmington Saturday.

Guy Long, who holds a position in the postoffice at St. Louis, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Dailey Appleberry, here Saturday.

Leahman Gideon, who is working in St. Louis, visited friends here Sunday.

J. R. Poston, of Bonne Terre, visited his brother, J. F. Poston, and family from Saturday to Monday.

A. C. Bradley and family, of near Bismarck, visited J. R. Wood and family here Sunday.

A. C. Norwine, of Bonne Terre, was here Monday a short while on business.

Monk McFarland, of Desloge, visited home folks here Monday.

Mrs. Wesley Horton and children, of Doe Run, were visiting her brother and family, H. L. Stapp, Sunday.

Miss Mildred Keith visited friends in Elvins Sunday.

John Declue, who has been conducting a confectionary in the Ezra Francis building for the past three months, has rented the store building where B. H. Bass had his store, and will move his stock there about Nov. 1st.

The Freewill Baptist congregation at Cherryville, near this place, expect to build a new church at that place in the near future.

Edward Boyer, who has been specializing in agriculture at Columbia for the past three years, is at home for a visit. He has been out in Colorado the past summer getting some practical experience. Edward is a graduate of our high school here and we are proud of him.

We heard a man remark the other day that "man wants but little here below." He's willing to admit it. If Uncle Sam keeps taxing him, he's pretty sure to get it.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist church will give an oyster supper in the basement of the church Saturday night, Oct. 29th, to which all are cordially invited.

We noticed in Capper's Weekly last week where a farmer a year ago could sell a bushel of corn and it would take him to the circus, give him a reserved seat, take him into the show and concert and give him a glass of red lemonade and a sack of peanuts. It took six bushels of corn for a farmer just to get a reserved seat at a circus the other day, and three more bushels if he took in the sideshow, concert and had a glass of lemonade and sack of peanuts.

A. C. McMullin and wife entertained at their home here last week Mr. McMullin's mother, Mrs. Robert McMullin, of Richwoods, Mo., and two uncles, Wm. McMullin, of Henderson, Ky., and Wm. McMullin, of Elvins, and his sister, Mrs. Williams, of DeSoto.

Edw. F. Karsch and family visited his sister and family, Mrs. E. J. Klein, at Farmington Sunday.

J. Adam Karsch and family visited his brother and family, Fred Karsch, at Farmington, Sunday afternoon.

A large delegation of base ball fans went to Desloge Sunday afternoon to witness the game between the Jefferson county All Stars and Desloge.

H. E. Clark and wife and Seaborn Thompson and wife, of Ironton, visited their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Thompson, here Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Robinson, of Ironton, visited friends here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Francis returned last Saturday from a four weeks visit with relatives in the East. They visited Boston and Albany and several other cities. They report having had a splendid visit. They report the conditions of the East as being as bad, if not worse, than they are here. And as far as the enforcement of the 18th Amendment to the Constitution, they don't seem to know there that we have adopted it in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stapp were shopping in St. Louis the first of the week.

Charles Risher, who has accepted a position at Puxico, Mo., has returned here. He says that business is very dull in that part of the country. Charley has had quite a lot of experience selling life insurance.

James Simms and family and Mr. C. H. Denton and wife and Mrs. Harry Edmonds and niece, Miss Eveline, were out driving in the country Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Huston Edmonds, of Bellevue, visited Mrs. J. A. and Harry Edmonds this week.

Miss Lulu McFarland and son, Leo, and Mrs. J. A. and Harry Edmonds visited friends at Bismarck Sunday evening.

CROSS ROADS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lenz and daughter spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dines, at Fredericktown.

Here's your chance for better farming; be a member of the Farm Bureau.

Alonzo Hicks and Benjamin Labrott spent Sunday with friends at Maquand.

Mrs. Wm. Lenz and Mrs. Jim King and little daughter spent Wednesday in Fredericktown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weatherington, of near Libertyville, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Covington.

Mrs. Jos. Vessells was a business visitor at Farmington last Monday.

James King and little son were visitors at Fredericktown one day last week.

Mrs. Henry King and daughter, Mrs. Tucker, of Libertyville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Weatherington.

Several from Mine La Motte attended the funeral of Glenda Pirtle here Sunday evening.

Tie up to the Farm Bureau. It pays!

Glenda Pirtle, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Pirtle, died at her home here last Saturday morning at 6:30 o'clock of typhoid fever, aged 11 years, 6 months and 4 days. She was born March 19, 1910, and died Oct. 22, 1921. Her remains were interred in the Pirtle cemetery here Sunday afternoon. We extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Crabtree and family, of near Flat River, spent Monday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Loughary.

Mrs. W. A. King, Mrs. Sands, Leon Womack and daughter, Thelma, and Paul Lenz attended the funeral of Glenda Pirtle here Sunday.

Lucas and Wm. Lenz are on the sick list at this writing.

Lora Whitworth, of Cape Girardeau, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur Womack, and family at this writing.

Mrs. J. W. Angel was guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Pirtle, near Mine La Motte, over Saturday night and attended the funeral of her granddaughter on Sunday afternoon.

Give your membership to the Farm Bureau. It helps you and you help it.

John M. Johnson has returned to his home here after an extended visit with relatives in St. Louis.

Mrs. J. W. Angel received a message on last Saturday stating that her grand-daughter, Glenda Pirtle had died with typhoid fever.

Harry and Arch Leigh attended the fair in Farmington on last Friday.

Arthur Kennon, of Cross Roads, was in this community on last Friday.

Mrs. R. N. Leigh spent the past week at the bedside of her son, J. W. Leigh, who is seriously ill at his home in Farmington.

Jim Hill's horse fell down on last Thursday, throwing him off and bruising him up quite a bit.

John Sevenings, of Flat River, was in this community last Tuesday.

Mrs. W. A. King was a business visitor in Fredericktown last Thursday.

Mrs. Joe Caruthers, of near Barks, visited her son, Leslie Caruthers, here over Wednesday night and was on her way to Arcadia to visit relatives.

Wilbert Whitworth was guest of his father, W. P. Whitworth, near Spring Valley over Wednesday night.

Arch Leigh, who went to Kansas to work during harvest, returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Leigh, the past week.

Aaron Hahn was a business visitor in Flat River last Friday.

Join and stick by the Farm Bureau, when your chance comes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hines and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Caruthers attended the fair at Farmington last Friday.

Leo Johnson, of Libertyville, was in this community last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Prince and family, who have been living at the Stave Factory, near here, have moved to Joshua Hahn's place in this community.

Elizabeth Cowley was guest of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Cowley, at Libertyville, Saturday night.

A. J. Kennon, of Cross Roads, was in this community on last Monday.

Wilbert Whitworth was a business visitor in Flat River on last Friday.

Ollie King, of St. Louis, came here last Monday for an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King, and other relatives.

TUNNEL

Misses Leona Head and Mae Barton, of Valle Mines, were visiting friends in Silver Springs Wednesday.

H. C. Carter and daughter, Mas, motored to DeSoto Wednesday.

Mrs. Tom Head and daughter, Leona, and Mae Barton visited at the home of Frank Porter Wednesday.

Fenton Roberts, of Melzo, was a Tunnel visitor Friday.

An organization fighting for farmers' interests—the Farm Bureau.

Misses Mae and Pearl Carter were Valle Mines visitors Friday.

Monroe Nash, of Valle Mines, was a Tunnel visitor Saturday.

Mr. Longworth, of St. Louis, was in this community Saturday.

Mrs. Abbie Rowe, of Valle Mines, was a Bonne Terre visitor Saturday.

Wendel Easter, of Desloge, is visiting friends in Silver Springs this week.

Joe Moon was in this community Friday.

Mrs. Lon Moore, of Prospect, visited her father, Wm. Watt, of Valle Mines, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carter and son, Mr. and Mrs. A. Frazier, Misses Mae, Leona and Pearl Carter, Wendel Easter, Fenton Thurman, Pete Parker, James Douglas and Oscar Richardson attended the dance at the Swashen Garden Saturday night.

Frank Hamcock, of Silver Springs, visited at the home of S. P. Cole, of Valle Mines, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carter and children motored to Desloge Sunday.

S. P. Cole and Homer Appleberry were Tunnel visitors Sunday.

Arthur Sykes was a Valle Mines visitor Sunday.

Bee a booster, not a slacker; join the Farm Bureau.

Miss Mae Carter was guest of Liz-zie Watt Sunday.

Theo. Statzel and Chas. Bellville, of Oakvale, attended the shooting match at Valle Mines Friday night.

James Douglas, Oscar Richardson and Pete Parker attended church at Roughly Sunday night.

Mrs. Price Cole and son, Sterling, visited relatives in Bonne Terre a few days this week.

Miss Carrie Shannon and Carl Richardson were guests of Miss Clara Douglas Sunday.

Mrs. Mart Doney and daughter, Marie, were Bonne Terre visitors Sunday.

Miss Leona Carter, of Bonne Terre, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carter, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Murphy, of Melzo, visited his parents Sunday.

Make your Old clothes New dyeing saves buying.

Have you a suit, overcoat, cloak, dress, dress goods, or in fact any article of wearing apparel or anything made of cloth that has faded—or of whose color you are tired? Lungstras great dyeing plant can dye your garments and draperies—and make them look like new. Lungstras has a reputation throughout the United States as the Best Dyer—of everything from the finest laces to the heaviest rugs. People from every State in the Union send their garments to Lungstras.

Send Us Your Garments

Send us your garment, tell us the color you want it dyed. We will immediately advise you how it will dye and our price. You can then either authorize us to proceed or return your garment. You pay for the work when it is returned to you.

Lungstras
Dyeing and Cleaning Co.

IRON MOUNTAIN LAKE

Has changed hands and is now under competent management, and all are guaranteed a fair deal. Privilege for hunting and fishing can be secured on grounds from manager.

Boats on hand for rent and shells can be bought there. If you desire recreation, you cannot find a better place than Iron Mountain Lake.

S. T. SCHUTZ, Manager